

Human Genetics Research Project
Project Outline- Genetic Disorder

Name: _____
 Date: _____
 Core: _____

Directions: In the spaces below, answer each of the guiding questions and collect research notes. As you are taking notes, be sure to use your own words. In the assigned margin, indicate which source you used to find the information.

- 1) Introduce your disease: In this section you will tell the reader the name of your disease and give a few basic facts. Use the guiding questions to form your paragraph.

Source

What is the disease?

Source

What is the genetic cause of the disorder?

Source

How is the disease diagnosed and/ or screened?

Some work may have to be done at home. Ms. West will be available everyday afterschool if you want to stay to use the computer or other resources; please make arrangements at least one day ahead of time.

Human Genetics Research Project
Project Outline- Genetic Disorder

Name: _____
Date: _____
Core: _____

2) Affects of the disease: In this section you will explain the affects of the disease. Use the guiding questions to form your paragraph.

How does the disease affect those with the disorder?

Source

What are the symptoms?

Source

How is the disease treated?

Source

Some work may have to be done at home. Ms. West will be available everyday afterschool if you want to stay to use the computer or other resources; please make arrangements at least one day ahead of time.

Human Genetics Research Project
Project Outline- Genetic Disorder

Name: _____
Date: _____
Core: _____

3) Interesting Scientific Advances: In this section you will extend further into research by finding new developments about your disease.

Source

List at least one advance in science related to the disease

Some work may have to be done at home. Ms. West will be available everyday afterschool if you want to stay to use the computer or other resources; please make arrangements at least one day ahead of time.